

The Eveline Duthie School
for Girls opened on Monday July 25th 1910 in Lady Milton's wife of His Honour Sir William Milton, Administrator of Rhodesia &
Natal.

E. Milton

George Duthie

E. Basch

Agnes Maasdorp

A. F. Maasdorp

Julie C. Inskipp

P. Inskipp

Walter Baxendale

F. P. Heyman

Blanche Myburgh

C. Comer

W. F. Miolee

C. Davis

C. E. G. Cummings

C. P. J. Coghlan

A. Fraser

S. Wreford

M. I. Cohen

A page of history from the Eveline Logbook, which was opened by Miss G. Milne Langdon on Monday, July 25, 1910, and continued by her and her successors until January 30, 1940. The first signature in the book is Eveline Milton's, followed by that of her husband, Sir William Milton. The others are: George Duthie (Director of Education); E. Basch (Mayor of Bulawayo); Agnes Maasdorp; A. F. Maasdorp (Judge President of the Orange Free State); Julie C. Inskipp; P. Inskipp; Walter Baxendale; F. P. Heyman; Blanche Myburgh; C. Comer; W. F. Miolee; C. Davis; C. E. G. Cummings; C. P. J. Coghlan; A. Fraser; S. Wreford; M. I. Cohen.